Acres de la constitución de la c -

Re	solved, that the American Library Association (ALA) on behalf of its members:
1.	Commits to ongoing support of all children's right to read, their equitable access to diverse books and informational resources, and their right to library services by:

speaks against censorship of youth library books and resources;

what other children can rea

a. Reaffirming that the freedom to read supports active citizens of the future and

b. Upholding a parent's right to decide what their own children can read, but not