

Whereas the American Library Association (ALA) and the Chinese American Librarians Association (CALA) lost a valued member and a colleague on May 24, 2020, with the death of Clement Chu "ing Lau#

Whereas Clement Chu "ing Lau served as a librarian in numerous roles and institutions such as Associate Director of the Georgia Southern University Libraries and Director of the Anderson Library, Associate Librarian in the Long *ong +a, tist &niversity, Associate Director of &niversity of +altimore-s Law Library#

Whereas Lau earned his Master of Business Administration, Master of Science in Management Information Systems, and /on, ro it and Association Management, all from the &niversity of Maryland Global Campus#he received a Master of Library Sciences from the &niversity of Maryland and a Bachelor of Arts in Library Science from /ational Taiwan &niversity#

Whereas at the Chinese American Librarians Association (CALA), Lau served on and co-chaired numerous committees and groups, and , participated in CALA events and , programs in ALA conferences#Lau was also a very active member in ALA and the International Relations Round Table (.110)#

Whereas Lau was very involved in international librarianship, #he , participated, , presented and organized meetings in many conferences#Lau , published numerous scholarly articles relating to international and law librarianship, in English and in Chinese#and

Whereas Lau worked as a highly dedicated library professional with integrity and high standards, his true legacy lies in the , profound effect on those who had worked with him and those who had been mentored by him#now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the American Library Association (ALA), on behalf of its members

- 6(recognizes the significant contributions and accomplishments of Clement Chu "ing Lau over the course of his career and mourns his death#and
- 2(extends its sincerest condolences to his friends and family)

Adopted by the Council of the American Library Association