Committee Members Emily Drabinski (Chair), Robby Rothmann, Min Chou, Susan Considine, Megan Eady, Joy & Jelks, Catherine (Oke) Enshe, Erika, Lisa – Einraub, Janice – Elburn, Damon Justin, Eusebia “Intern”, Ebony Henry (Board Liaison) Michael Doolin (Staff Liaison)

International at Midwinter

Seventy-five exhibitors from twenty-one countries participated this year. In addition, nineteen companies from outside the US exhibited. Exhibitors came from Canada, China, France, Italy, Netherlands, Spain, United Arab Emirates, and United Kingdom.

The International Relations Roundtable hosted international exhibitors with a set to sether on Friday afternoon.

ALA, as a member of IFLA, is proud to support the promotion of the IFLA – World Library and Information Congress – “IC” in Dublin, Ireland in August 2020. The staff also highlighted IFLA’s Library Map of the World which includes a stories section on how libraries contribute to the 2030 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Currently there are no US stories included.

To that end, the ALA Executive Board approved a task force on the United Nations 2030 Sustainable Development Goals to create, and begin implementation of a multi-year strategic plan to increase awareness and participation of the US library community of the United Nations 2030 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and how libraries and librarians and library workers around the world are key partners in their communities, societies, and countries in achieving the goals.

ALA International Membership

ALA currently has 1,000 members from 97 countries. Of these a little over 50% are from Canada.

IFLA Update

The IRC was pleased to welcome Helen Mandl, Deputy Secretary General of IFLA, to Philadelphia for her first ALA membership visit. Along with 90,000 Board Member Michael Doolin they provided an update on IFLA activities.

IFLA was the location of IFLA – IC last August, and provided very attractive as ; ; ; ; deletes participated. This included a very large deletion of B01 from the United States.

IRRT Activities

IRRT Chair Richard Saxon has reported on a number of IRRT activities and initiatives. The IRRT has a webinar series directed to reach its international members. The IRRT continues to sponsor an Emergent Leader, and for the fourth year in a row one of the projects selected by the Emergent Leaders is an international related effort. The IRRT uses interest from its endowment funds to provide a Mission Enhancement Grant for a member-initiated idea which contributes to IFLA's role in international librarianship.
