

Private An Interpretation of the Library Bill of Rights

A popular assessment of a round of views presented to private and on that international forum on the art of private on nt a t ar p t n Art II o t Library Bill of Rights an p t n ts uarant o r a ss to b rar r sour s or a us rs

Rights of Library Users a o pr va an on nt a t as a n t on us rs s t on a ss to an us o b rar r sour s A us rs av a r t to b r ro an unr asonab ntrus on nto or surv an o t r aw u b rar us A A an ts b rs r o n t at r n an out av t sa r ts to pr va as a uts b rar us rs p t an n an pa s av a a r t to av t r p rsona nt a b n or at on an b rar us ata prot t an pt pr vat an on nt a b an on wt a ss to t at n or at on b rar s s ou n v r na t po s or pra t st at a b r us rs r t to pr va r ar ss o t r a a b t ous n status rat on status nvo v nt wt t r na ust s st r ous a at on t n t s ua or ntat on n r nt t or ot r or so nt t or status un ss p t r qu r b aw Ev n t n b rar s s ou on su t wt a ouns b or a r n an us r r t to pr va

b rar s av a r spons b t to n or us rs a b out po s an pra t s ov rn n t o t on s ur t an r t nt on o p rsona nt a b n or at on an b rar us ata A t on a us rs s ou av t o to opt n to an ata o t on t at s not ss nt a to b rar op rat ons an t opportun t to opt out a appropriate international law. It is essential that libraries and national archives be available to private persons at state level. In order to work together, states are encouraged to cooperate. Every one who provides information and administration in libraries and in

Association
