

erican Library Association 50 E. Huron St. Chicago, IL 60611 (312) 280-4398 (800) 545-2433 x4398 Fax (312) 280-5273 http://www.ala.org/rusa

Guidelines for Liaison Work in Managing Collections and Services with library resources; regular meetings with factoty ascertain planned currilum developments and to identify new resources; comunication of available materials and siees; and establishment a process by which library users can suggest purchases.

6.3.3 Suggested informal activisienclude, but are not limited:tparticipating in carpus organizations and activities; monitoring campus media for activities and events that affect collections denouraging library use and support by non-users.

7.0 Liaison Work in Special Libraries

7.1 Collection Developmen Policy

7.2Users

7.3 Liaison activities

7.3.1 Library staff should maintain awaess of organization projects and imnives, developments in relevant fields, regulations, and produom of new materials that upport the institutions' tavities through interaction with other staff and systematic study of profile nal journals, catalogs, and planning documents.

7.3.2 Encourage external users to slutaeir knowledge of developments daresources that enhance expertise in the relevant fields.