

American Rescue Plan: Humanities Grantmaking

American Library Association

I. Instructions

Through the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) American Rescue Plan: Humanities Grantmaking funding opportunity, the American Library Association (ALA) will provide libraries the support they need to reaffirm and strengthen their roles, post-pandemic, as vibrant centers of humanities learning, conversation, and connection. ALA is distributing $2 million in subawards to up to 200 public, academic, school, tribal, prison, and special libraries, serving a broad range of communities across the U.S. Each recipient will receive $10,000 to support humanities efforts.

Prior to beginning your library's application, please read the complete Project Guidelines.

This form must be submitted by the application deadline on December 2, 2021, at 11:59 PM CST
