

Libraries provide many benefits :
libraries the lion's share of progr teens. In the 2007 survey condu exploration, skills development, and even jobs and internships that will prepare teens for life beyond high school.

- After School Matters (ASM) in Chicago is a partnership between the city, the Chicago Public Schools, the Chicago Park District and the Chicago Public Library that offers apprenticeships and other enrichment activities to more than 20,000 teens.